Summary: The flagship Agricultural Outlook Report for 2023-32 by the Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs sets out China's plan to grow 88.4 per cent of the grain – mainly referring to rice, wheat, corn and soybeans – it needs within a decade from the current level of 82 percent. It also plans to reduce grain imports to 122 million metric tonnes from last year's 146.9 million metric tonnes, according to the report released by the agriculture ministry's outlook committee on Monday.
