Tweet: Saudi security forces have reportedly killed hundreds of Ethiopian migrants seeking to enter the KSA. The migrants are largely motivated by higher earning potential in the kingdom.

Summary: Saudi border forces have killed hundreds of Ethiopian migrants attempting to cross into the kingdom from Yemen over the past 18 months, according to a human rights group. New York-based Human Rights Watch alleges in a 73-page report that the security forces “fired explosive weapons” at migrants and in some cases asked them which of their limbs they would prefer to be shot. The kingdom is home to hundreds of thousands of Ethiopian workers.
